Shanghai (July 29, 2024) – The Swiss Centers China has opened a new location in the important industrial city of Changzhou in Jiangsu Province, in the greater Shanghai metropolitan area – a milestone for the development of the non-profit organization in the Yangtze River Delta. On 1,200 square meters, the brand-new facility offers independent offices, co-working space, as well as showroom and meeting facilities for Swiss enterprises. “Changzhou hosts one of the biggest clusters of Swiss enterprises in the Yangtze River Delta area. 42 Swiss enterprises are set up in the city and its hi-tech district, and many of them are members or customers of the Swiss Centers”, reports Mr. XIAO Zhen, CEO of the Swiss Centers Group. “With the new facility, we can extend our services, customized solutions and network to these Swiss enterprises. Many of them are SMEs in advanced manufacturing, new materials and med-tech. Additionally, we are here to support newcomers who have interest in Changzhou because of its advantageous location and industrial ecosystem.”

The services of the non-profit Swiss Centers are designed to support the market entry and growth of Swiss companies in China. The new facility, located in walking distance to the Changzhou North Railway Station, will serve as a platform to connect Swiss companies locally with relevant business and institutional partners. Mr. Xiao explains: “We have cooperated with the Changzhou government for years. Swiss companies can benefit from this experience and network.”

The grand opening ceremony of Swiss Center Changzhou was held on July 12, 2024. Mr. Jürg Burri, Ambassador of Switzerland to China, Mr. Sacha Bachmann, Consul General of Switzerland in Shanghai, along with Ms. SHENG Lei, Mayor of Changzhou, Mr. PAN Dongling, Deputy Mayor of Changzhou, city and district leaders, as well as hundreds of representatives from Sino-Swiss institutions and businesses, attended the festive event.

Ambassador Burri congratulated Swiss Center Changzhou on its opening and envisioned a bright future for Sino-Swiss cooperation. “Now we have a Swiss ground in Changzhou”, he spoke passionately, “I wish a lot of success to the new Swiss Center”.

About the Swiss Centers:

Founded in 2000 as a non-profit Sino-Swiss public-private partnership, the Swiss Centers are by far the largest cluster of Swiss companies in Asia.

Swiss Centers' practical solutions supported the businesses of over 450 companies in China – both SMEs and large enterprises. Among them, the Swiss Centers have established more than 100 companies in China, both B2B and B2C, production companies and offices, active in various fields. In cooperation with the diplomatic representations in China, the Swiss Centers also conducts surveys that provide the most detailed expertise available on the situation of Swiss companies in China, and at the same time promotes the Swiss Made brand and Switzerland as a country for quality, innovation and industrial leadership.

With locations strategically situated on China's dynamic East Coast (Shanghai, Changzhou and Tianjin), the Swiss Centers are constantly adapting to the needs of the Swiss economy:

- Instant physical office space as well as ready-to-use workshops, showrooms, and warehouses
- Relations with local Chinese authorities and connections to Swiss government and institutions in China
- Support for secure technology transfer and intellectual property protection
- Access to professional services tailored to SMEs in all aspects of setting up and developing business in China (legal, tax, accounting, recruitment, HR management, IT, marketing)
- Unique solutions such as hosting employees locally or storing and delivering goods on behalf of clients in the Shanghai free trade zone to facilitate business development in China and the rest of Asia
